Agia

design: ITO Design

Sophisticated comfort

Agia is a European designed, innovative task chair that performs beautifully across the office. Agia features a comprehensive range of adjustments including unique lumbar depth adjustment that provides excellent support for the curvature of the back, delivering a better sitting experience.

ITO Design in Germany was challenged to create a high-functioning ergonomic chair that provides a better fit. Agia impressively delivers with a sophisticated package of ergonomic features, including an advancement in lumbar adjustment.

delight users

Agia's lumbar back support encourages the natural S-shape of the spine, helping the spine and neck align to reduce stress and fatigue.

Advanced ergonomics for a perfect fit

We make it easy to change positions. Simply scan the chair's QR code with your smartphone or tablet and learn how easy it is to adjust Agia.

Lumbar height adjustment

Adjust your lumbar support to where you need it most for good posture and comfort.

Intuitive assembly

Agia's thoughtful design allows you to do more with less materials. Quickly adjust to find the perfect fit, or effortlessly disassemble to manage material wastes at the end of its life cycle.

Lumbar depth adjustment

Unique lumbar depth adjustment lets you personalize your support, in both upholstered and mesh styles.
