

Junior Programmer

Holland Landing

Job Overview

The Junior Programmer will be responsible for development and software maintenance of existing applications as assigned by the Director of IT.

Primary Tasks & Responsibilities

- Perform program design, coding, testing, documentation, implementation, configuration, and support.
- Prepare system design specifications, development of project plans, update existing corporate models and documentation.
- Track and monitor the performance of current and/or new systems and correct operational problems when they occur with production systems software.
- Maintain close contact with client departments and be aware of the changing business environment which affects the ultimate design of new systems and enhancements to current production systems.
- Document client requirements using established methods such as interviewing, prototyping and process modeling.
- Review & edit requirements, specifications, business processes & recommendations related to proposed solution to ensure client is following the best practice use of the software.
- Present completed work to colleagues and users as required.
- Participate in walkthroughs of program code.
- Function as an effective team player.

Knowledge, Skills, Abilities & Education

- College Diploma or University Degree in Computer Science or Information Technology.
- 2 to 3 years related work experience.
- Expertise within an AS/400 environment with proficiency in RPG, SDA, CL & SAL.
- 2 to 3 years direct work experience with application programming languages, such as Java, .NET, HTML and J2EE.
- Direct work experience with Microsoft Dynamics systems and framework.
- Programming experience with applications, such as ERP, CRM. CMS systems.
- Experience with client/server architectures, LAMP, Apache, PHP, MySQL, Wordpress,
- Ability to write concise and accurate technical instructions throughout program development.
- Broad knowledge of emerging technologies.
- Able to translate user requests into definable technical specifications.
- Strong analytical and problem solving skills.
- Well organized and able to work under deadline pressures.

If you have the qualifications for the above position and are interested in joining a team oriented progressive company with excellent benefits, please submit your resume for consideration to careers@inscapesolutions.com. We thank all applicants for their interest, but advise that only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

Inscope values employment equity and is an equal opportunity employer.
Inscope will provide reasonable accommodation to applicants with disabilities.